CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

We published yesterday an interesting letter on this unfortunate railway. The misfortunes that have overtaken it were foreseen by everybody except the London Board of Directors, to whom we have frequently alluded in these columns as "Rip Van Winkles" and "old fogeys." They laughed at us during ten or fifteen years because they were earning 12 per cent dividends, and thought such dividends would last for ever. Even now they refuse to admit the error of their ways, and have resolved to punish the principal officials, who have served them for 20 years, alleging the "enervating effects of the climate" on all officials of long standing.

There never yet was a railway company with so marvellous a concession as the Central Argentine: it had powers to make branches all over the republic, without asking permission of Congress: Yet the Directors obstinately refused for more than 15 years to lay down a single mile of branch rails in any direction. They got 12 per cent, and they cared nothing for the public requirements.

An opportunity occurred to make up for past errors, when the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Co. offered to amalgamate on equal terms, but such was the infatuation of the Board that they demanded a preference or premium as regarded Central Argentine shares, and broke off what promised to be a most advantageous business. The result is that to-day one share of the rival company is worth in the London market more than two shares of Central Argentine.

Nevertheless the Central Argentine stock must some day or other recover. Not by changing all the employees of long-standing, but by electing a better Board of Directors in London. It is not true that the climate of Rosario or of Buenos Ayres has an enervating effect on Englishmen. We see Europeans grow gray in every branch of trade and enterprise in the River Plate, without losing any of the energy or powers with which they commenced their various careers thirty or forty years ago. But there has been some enervating process going on in the London Board of the Central Argentine Railway, which would justify the shareholders in turning them out "bag and baggage."

BOYS' NIGHT-REFUGE.

The hardship of the times, the dearness of food and the inclemency of the weather are felt especially by the little boys who sell newspapers in the streets, many of whom have neither home nor friends. It is therefore quite proper that the principal newspaper proprietors of our city should assume, as they have done, the task of providing a comfortable refuge for such boys, where they will at least get a good supper and warm bed. We believe all the newspapers are agreed to help the good work, although at last Wednesday's meeting the only papers represented were the Nacion, Prensa and STANDARD. The honor of initiating the movement belongs to Dr. Nevares, the well-known journalist, and we have no doubt the institution will be a great boon to one of the humblest classes of our community.

Dr. Nevares takes for his model the similar institutions that exist in Dublin and New York: we are not sure if they are to be found in any other cities. Two years ago we visited that in Dublin, and our impressions may be of use at the present moment.

The Boys' Home, as it is called, in Dublin does not owe its origin to the newspaper proprietors, as one would expect, but to an energetic priest, Rev. Robert Conlan, who purchased an old building that had once been used as a grain deposit, in Abbey Street. There are 4 floors: the first is used as a dining room, with lavatory attached; the second is a reading-room, furnished with the works of Scott, Lever, Macaulay, etc., and with such games as draughts, dominoes and chess; the third and fourth are dormitories, the neatness of which is really admirable.

For the small charge of one penny the little street-arabs are here provided with supper and bed; that is two centavos of Argentine money. The institution admits 100 boys, and is under the immediate charge of Sergeant O'Donovan, an old Crimean soldier, who takes as much interest in the boys as Father Conlan himself. The arrangements and discipline of the house are perfect. Some of the boys have accounts in the Post Office Savings-banks. Many of them, from time to time, get good situations in the shops or steamboat offices, and these invariably shew their gratitude by sending a donation at Christmas to the Home where they first succeeded in improving their condition in life. It is needless to say that the Home is not self-supporting, but the deficit of about £300 a year is made up by donations from charitable persons.

Once a year Father Conlan preaches a Charity sermon at the Cathedral in aid of his dear boys, and the appeal is responded to not only by the Roman Catholics but also by the Viceroy of Ireland, the Judges of the Supreme Courts and the Professors of the Protestant University. The late lamented Professor Galbraith, a Protestant clergyman, was one of Father Conlan's most strenuous supporters. The newspaper proprietors also contribute.

At an expenditure to the public of about one pound sterling per day this most useful institution renders a great service to society. Father Conlan is not only regarded by the boys as their friend and protector, but esteemed by his fellow-citizens as a public benefactor. He is, moreover, parish-priest of one of the numerous parishes in Dublin, and one of the most scholarly men of his time, especially in archæology. In due time he is likely to wear a mitre, and may perhaps one day receive the Cardinal's hat. But his heart is not in such distinctions, but in the Boys' Home; and as he passes through the street his eye brightens when one of his boys gives him the military salute, for it is more to him than if all the Crowned Heads of Europe sent him their crosses and cagles.

We support most cordially the proposal of a similar institution in Buenos Ayres.

THE CORDOBA REVOLUTION.

In our last we published the energetic answer of President Pellegrini to the appeal of the clergy of Cordoba, who invoked the glorious memories of the national anniversary and the generous feelings of the President and of Generals Roca and Mitre to give a free pardon to those implicated in the attempt to blow up a portion of the city of Cordoba and convulse the whole country. We doubt not that the majority will applaud the tone of the President's answer. General Roca has answered in a similar strain, deploring that people should resort to such barbarous means as dynamite and Orsini bombs, a mode of warfare never carried on in this country in the past. General Mitre, however, answers in a different manner: he endorses the views of the clergy and appeals to the Cordoba authorities for a general amnesty. General Mitre, therefore, must think that there were plausible causes for the outbreak and closes his eyes to the fact that an attempt to convulse the whole country and apply dynamite to public buildings and Orsini bombs to national troops, was averted.

The following is the text of General Roca's answer to the Bishop and clergy of Cordoba:—"In all the vicissitudes of my political career, as you are aware, I have always leaned to the side of mercy, always willing to relegate to oblivion those errors, excesses which are the results of our deficient political education. In the case of Cordoba, where affairs are aggravated by the resort to means not only forbidden by the laws of warfare but distasteful to the knightly demeanor of Argentines, proverbial in the most sanguinary struggles, I do not deem it expedient to interfere at this moment when justice is making investigations to fix the responsibilities that must be borne by those implicated in the events of the 21st.

I trust, however, that no matter what the sentence of the judges, the Government of Cordoba, who are men reputed for their moderation and generosity, will see that the rigour of the law be investigated as much as possible.

Julio A. Roca.

It would, indeed, be difficult to find fault with the above letter, inspired as it is by the noblest feelings: yet our colleague La Nacion manages to criticise with great vehemence the lines where General Roca gives the men in the Government of Cordoba credit for moderation and generosity. We should say that this is the best compliment that could be paid to the letter, for the sentiments expressed are apt to induce that very moderation and generosity that the Nacion fails to detect in the Government of Cordoba.

General Mitre's answer to the Bishop of Cordoba is as follows:

"I share your noble feelings and trust that the Government of Cordoba, inspired by the generous desire of calming the excitement of the people, will declare a general amnesty to restore peace and quiet.

"Bartolomé Mitre."

We may say that the above letters are are the drop curtain on the Cordoba revolution; at least it is to be hoped so, in the interests of the country at large.

THE CHILIAN REVOLUTION.

Telegrams from Valparaiso announce that the torpedo-catcher Condell has arrived at that port, safe and sound, after a daring cruise as far north as Iquique. Such a halo of glory has been cast round this expedition, such great importance is attached to the exploit, that one is apt to suppose that the Condell had blown up another rebel iron-clad. But the facts of the case do not warrant much exultation on the part of the Balmaceda Government. Thanks to her superior speed, the Condell was enabled to rush through the enemy's lines, to enter Iquique port when no iron-clads or gunboats protected the place, to exchange shots at a safe distance with the iron-clad Cochrane, to steam down to the South, sieze and then abandon Talcal—nothing more. Any ordinary gunboat with the speed of the Condell could have done as much, if not more.

There is no denying the great moral effect of the cruise of the Condell, in so far as it gives the Balmaceda Government a greater amount of confidence and impresses on the rebels the necessity of sinking or capturing the two phantom torpedo-catchers. Thus, when the Condell entered the port of Iquique she could, in the absence of the rebel fleet, enter near shore and fire a torpedo at the transports moored at the wharves. The torpedo had no effect and a second one could not be fired, as a smoke on the horizon announced the approach of the rebel squadron. One would have supposed, after the experience of the Caldera engagement, that the Condell might have had leisure to fire at least three torpedoes at the powerless transports, but there must have been some screw loose, for the torpedo-catcher immediately steamed out of the bay after wasting shot from her small, quick-firing guns on the walls of Iquique houses.

No sooner out of the Iquique Bay than the Condell spied the Cochrane, which did not retreat, but advanced and opened fire on the torpedo-catcher; it must be inferred that the torpedo-catcher retreated, as only a few shots were exchanged, and the very commander of the torpedo vessel states that the Cochrane did not show her stern. Then followed a mild engagement with the Aconcagua and the O'Higgins, but neither was sunk; in this instance, the torpedo-catcher must have beat in a hasty retreat also. Steaming South, the Condell entered the Taltal bay: fire was opened from one of the big guns in the forts. The Condell immediately landed 60 men and took the place: a few hours later they abandoned it. A daring exploit, no doubt, but utterly useless as a warlike operation, if we except the seizure of a big gun and the moral impression produced by the feat.

As far as we can gather, the Condell was sent north to capture the transport Itata. Balmaceda might have spared himself this trouble, for the Condell never caught sight of the Itata and she might have known that American gunboats would be in hot pursuit on a similar errand. What is most important is the disastrous impression that the sinking of the Blanco Encalada has made on the rebel troops. According to advices from Santiago, the rebel land forces are so terrified by the effects of the torpedo on the Blanco Encalada, that they positively refuse to embark in the transports. The rebel troops at Iquique resisted orders and revolted; in the scrimmage about 30 men were killed and many more wounded. The Revolutionary Government will therefore be obliged to concentrate its squadron to run down the Government torpedo division; the Condell and Lynch must be either captured or sent to the bottom before any confidence can be re established among the rebel land forces. This leads us to suppose that ere long the whole rebel squadron will be seen under steam on the search for both torpedo vessels; meantime the transports will be idle and no progress will be made on land.

Our old travelling correspondent, Mr. J. L. Williams Andrews, who in previous years accompanied the Villegas and Roca Indian campaigns in the far South, writes to us from Chillan, Chile:—"All trade is at a standstill here owing to the revolution, and unless an end speedily comes the country will be nearly ruined. As far as my personal observation goes, I judge that the President will win; the people seem to take very little interest in the matter, and no enthusiasm is shewn. I am just starting as fast as possible for the Lonquimay Pass, as what promises to be an unusually severe winter has suddenly come upon us: a tremendous storm in the last two days has filled the Cordillera with snow, and even now it seems dubious if we shall be able to get across."

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

April 21st.

It was anticipated by many that the ruling of the Lord Chancellor and the Master of the Rolls in the Clytheroe—or Jackson—case would disturb the minds of right-thinking Englishmen in regard to the most sacred of social institutions. Some went as far as to say, and indeed still say, that the Lord Chancellor has dealt a fatal blow to the institution of marriage. You will have [illegible] to prove that on the dates when Miss Gladys Evelyn asserts he said this thing or did the other he was in some other country, or in some other part of this country, and always with some heavy swell or "eminent Englishman," and finally, which is the extraordinary part of it, he has, he contends, been mistaken for his Secretary, a Mr. Wilfred Murray—not forthcoming—who must have given the obscure photographs to the lady and written the vile letters to her, and must have..... Well, if Miss Evelyn, or Miss Ellis, or whatever she is, cannot tell one man from another under the most intimate circumstances, it is a remarkable case. As far as the summing up has gone I see by the telegrams that the judge, whilst fully comprehending the moral status of Miss Evelyn, does not quite see the "Box and Cox" business.

* * *

Of the two M.P.'s charged with criminal offences, Captain Verney has turned up. He was arrested to-day at Charing Cross Station and placed at once under magisterial examination. A lady gave evidence that although the captain had grown a beard and moustache since she saw him, she recognised him as the "Mr. Wilson" for whom the French procuress was acting. The case is adjourned till next Friday, but Captain Verney was released only on very substantial bails—two of £1000 each and his own for £500.

Mr. de Cobain, the deputy Grand Orange Master, is still in Spain, or somewhere not generally known to his friends.

THE ACCIDENT TO THE P.S.N.C. STEAMER BRITANNIA.

This was of much more serious character than was at first reported. The main shaft broke between two of the collars in the thrust block, about 600 miles south of Valparaiso, on Monday evening, the 4th inst., when the steamer was over 200 miles from any port, and nearly opposite the island of Tres Montes, one of the worst parts of the dangerous Chilian coast. As at least two days would have had to elapse before the same Company's steamer Galicia, then due at Sandy Point, could overtake the Britannia, Captain Brown, of the latter ship, decided to try and steam slowly back to the nearest port, Ancud, it being found that the break, being of a jagged character, it was possible to still work the shaft. For the first twenty-four hours, needless to say, a very anxious time was spent by all on board, and especially by the captain and his officers. The boats were fully provisioned, special boat drill was held, and everything made ready in case of a complete break-up of the shaft, and it being found necessary to leave the ship. Fortunately, however, no bad weather was experienced, and Captain Brown, finding the shaft holding together so well, decided on trying to make Talcahuano, which port the Britan ia safely reached in the evening of the 8th inst. The Galicia overtook the Britannia on the morning of that day, and assisted her for a few hours. The sudden appearance of the two vessels at Talcahuano created for a little time rather a scare on shore, it being thought, until their nationality was discovered, that they formed part of the hostile fleet. The Britannia now lies in that port, pending the arrival from Liverpool of the necessary portion of the machinery to repair the damage. The passengers, mails and specie, as well as some cargo for Sandy Point and Montevideo, were transferred to the Potosi, and duly arrived at the Mount on Monday morning last.

THE OUTLOOK IN THE ARGENTINE.

(From the British Trade Journal.)

The population of the city of Buenos Ayres is nearly half-a-million—mostly foreigners; of these the Italian element is numerically by far the strongest. The Italian is the hewer of wood and drawer of water—the patient maid-of-all-work—both in city and in camp. The Englishman manages the railways, plays the financier—there are no less than five flourishing English banks in Buenos Ayres—and acts a prominent part in commerce, chiefly as an importer. The Frenchman and German conduct the principal export houses. The Argentine is the gentleman. Being the original owner of the soil he has grown rich out of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain's famous "unearned increment."

It is difficult to write patiently of the present financial condition of the Argentine Republic—the scandals that have brought it about, and the childish efforts being made to remedy it. The soil is rich beyond description, each of the fourteen provinces of the Republic having a distinct product of its own; the climate is excellent; the settlers, chiefly the Italians, are most industrious. During the past ten years millions of pounds sterling have been poured into the country by way of mortgage on its lands and loans for public works. And yet, to-day, the Government treasury is empty; the public works are non-existent; the mortgaged lands turn out to be, in too many cases, swamps or barren rocks; the currency of the country is some hundreds of millions of dollars of paper, worth one-fourth its face value; the Italian workers are scuttling from the ill-starred land; while the Minister of Finance flounders from one stupid decree to another, taxing the necessaries of life or taunting foreign bankers with not having followed the native into bankruptcy. Of course that gentleman's task, when he took office, after the revolution of last July, was perfectly Herculean. Roundly, out of an income of 45,000,000 dollars he had to meet current expenses to the tune of 47,000,000 dollars and find 16,000,000 dollars (gold) interest on the foreign debt. This he proposed to do by additional taxation and the exaction of customs in gold, calculated to produce 15,000,000 dollars; by cutting down expenses to the extent of 11,000,000 dols.; by the annual holocaust of 15,000,000 dollars of skin-plasters; and by inducing foreign creditors to fund their interest for three years. Not one word, be it noted, as to compelling the plunderers of the past ten years to disgorge. It remains to be seen what the foregoing proposals will effect towards curing the crisis. My own opinion is that the 15,000,000 dollars of paper will not be burnt, that the 45,000,000 dollars reduction of expenses will not be carried out; that the 15,000,000 dollars additional taxation will not be obtained; and that at the end of three years, when the funded interest becomes capital, the last state of the Argentine patient will be worse than the first.

As for the general state of business, it could scarcely be worse. The export season will now be over, and the slight appearance of activity which I left will have therefore vanished. For months past importers have had nothing to do but twirl their thumbs in deserted warehouses. There is, however, this consoling feature about this department, that stocks of goods all over the country are at the lowest ebb, and buyers looking on, waiting for the fall of gold and an honest Government. How long will they have to wait, is a question which time alone can answer. Over the door of the Bolsa is written, "Ichabod." Two years ago it was a veritable El Dorado; no scheme was too wild, but it found frantic buyers at fabulous premiums. And to-day a few Catalines, a few National Bank shares, a few of the most discredited of the Cedulas, all at rubbish prices; these constitute the daily dealings on the Stock Exchange of a city of half a million people. I think no fact connected with the Argentine Republic is so significant as this. Everything of value in the country—its railways, its banks, its Government stock (such as it is)—is held abroad, and is unquoted even on the Stock Exchange of its capital; nothing but rubbish, mere gambling counters, figures on the Buenos Ayres black board. Surely the Barings and other financiers, when they shook their purses into the lap of Argentina, were not blind to all these signs. The fact is, that in spite of fine houses, loads of jewels, and high-stepping horses the wealth of the Argentine Republic has, as yet, been mere veneer. The almost unlimited issue of paper-money and Cedulas and foreign loans has given an appearance of prosperity where there was no prosperity. The day of reckoning has come, and one of two things must happen—either a tedious course of exhausting economy, extending over several years, or a composition with creditors. The latter would be the more just arrangement as involving the lesser of two evils; for in both events the innocent must suffer with the guilty, if usurious lenders or investors can be deemed innocent at all. For the rest, the undoubted wealth of the Argentine Republic has not even yet been tapped, much less drawn off. Under a fairly honest and capable Government the future of the country must be a brilliant one.

LOMAS ACADEMY ATHLETIC CLUB.

Under the auspices of the L. A. A. C. a football match was played at Lomas de Zamora on Sunday last, before a considerable number of spectators, including many ladies, between the above Club and Quilmes. Contrary to the general custom in matches played under Rugby rules, the ball was kicked off within five minutes of the advertised time.

Quilmes took the kick, and in a few moments Lomas clearly demonstrated that they intended to carry the day. Mayne was the first to distinguish himself by a smart run which carried the ball well within the enemy's 25. After some give-and-take play, in which good form was shown by Messrs. Anderson, Webster and Goodfellow, the ball was landed in touch within ten yards of the Quilmes goal line. On the throw out the leather was rescued by Anderson, who passed to Webster, who in turn passed well away to Findlay, and he, seizing the opportunity, dropped a very clever goal.

Several stiff mauls followed the kick out, and Quilmes looked like scoring, but the home goal was relieved by a timely punt from Bowmont. From a fist a free kick was allotted to Lomas, which being well followed up, the home forwards were upon the ball ere it could be returned. A maul ensued close on the goal line and Leitch, getting the ball, landed it over the boundary close to the touch line. Anderson took the kick and although he failed to improve matters, we must confess we have seldom seen a finer try for goal. Shortly after, half time was called, leaving Lomas winning by a goal and a try to nothing.

In the second half the play was much more evenly distributed, the leather being found as frequently within the territory of the home team as in that of Quilmes, and but for the saving of Bennett for Quilmes and Findlay for Lomas, there would have been scoring. As it was, when time was called neither side had been able to alter the state of affairs, and the game ended in a win for the L. A. A. C. by a goal and a try to nil.

For Quilmes, Bennett, Pennington, G. Anderson and Lace distinguished themselves, and for Lomas, Webster, Anderson, Findlay, Leitch and Corry Smith were deserving of special attention.

The following are the teams:—

Quilmes:—Back — F. J. Bennett; ¾ backs—Fothergill, H. H. Jones and E. Danvers; ½ backs—F. Steed and A. W. Crawford; forwards—S. C. Robinson (capt.), H. R. Pennington, F. C. Rooke, W. R. Cutlar, G. Anderson, F. Kruls, Russell, Lace and A. Anderson.

Lomas:—Back—Duncan; ¾ backs—Findlay, Webster and R. Anderson; ½ backs — Bowmont and Kennard; forwards—A. A. G. Goodfellow, L. Corry Smith, Hemans, Leitch, Kennard, Jacobs, Mayne and Varges.

Referee—B. Norwood.

Judges — G. M. Woodgate and A. Inglis.

BAND OF HOPE.

On Tuesday, May 26th, at the Scotch Church, Barracas, Dr. T. B. Wood gave a lecture, entitled "Three great questions enveloped in the temperance reform—the Physical, Social and Moral." Mr. T. Shrewsbury occupied the chair. The learned lecturer rivetted the attention of his audience. He said: Strong drink was bad from a physical point, because it ruined the constitution; from a social point, because it caused crime and ruin wherever it went; while from a moral point, it was condemned by the "word of God."

Miss Elsie Wood sang very sweetly "Nobody's Child," and Miss Anny Wood recited a temperance piece with her usual power.

THE LATE MRS. HUNTER.

(Communicated.)

Montevideo, May 25th.

The English section of the American Methodist Church in this city has suffered a very severe loss in the death of one of its most conspicuous members, Mrs. Margaret Divine Hunter, who died on Wednesday last, of small-pox. Mrs. Hunter was known and loved by all for her Christian activity and the abundance of her good works. The deceased was a native of Philadelphia, where she had been one of the organizers of the "Methodist Orphanage," "Women's Christian Association," and the "Home for the aged people."

A memorial service in honor of the departed Christian worker was held at the American Church in Calle Treinta y Tres on Sunday last. The attendance was very gratifying. We beg to tender the bereaved relatives and friends our deepest condolence and sympathy.

Anticipating the insertion of these few lines, I remain,

Yours sincerely
(Rev.) George G. Froggatt.

The following are our selections for to-day:—

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Another holiday, a solemn religious festival that will be celebrated with great pomp in the Cathedral. For the amusements of the day, see other paragraphs.

The military unpleasantness in Montevideo turns out to be pure moonshine. There is no further news from that tight little city.

Both Houses of Congress met yesterday. The Deputies passed the Bill sanctioned by the Senate on Tuesday suspending payment of the deposits in the State Banks. They approved also the pension voted by the Senate to the family of the late Senator Derqui. Deputy H. Quesada presented a fresh Bill for a "Unique Bank," to be started by a private company, capital 40 millions in shinplasters, in 400,000 preference shares, of $100, and 40 millions in ordinary shares: the first to bear 7 per cent interest, payable from profits, with amortization by drainings at par; the ordinary shares to be distributed amongst the shareholders of the Bank as a premium for their subscription to the Preference shares for an equal amount. Subscriptions to be paid in cash or Bonds of the Patriotic Loan at 75. No note issue unless guaranteed in metal. Sent to Committee. The Senate voted a pension to Dr. Derqui's family and named Senator Pizarro to speak at the funeral to-day.

We call attention to the advertisement in our third page of the Hurlingham races for to-day. The weather looks promising and a good day's sport may be expected. An additional attraction will be a Polo match between Quilmes and Santiago del Estero, to be played before the first race.

The gallant Tallapoosas and Essexes have arranged a base-ball match to be played next Sunday week.

Thursday, the 28th of May 1891, is a date not to be forgotten. We remind every hunting man, woman and child that the great Lomas Meet comes off to-day. Our Sporting Editor has brushed up his best green coat (good luck to the immortal colour!) and blacked his best top boots for the occasion. What a world of youth and beauty awaits him! Merry Lomas and the Avenida Meeks will the visitors from all parts, and many well-known ladies will put in appearance with the determination to ride the course from end to end. May the sport be of the best, may we be there to enjoy it, and may the future meets be as successful as the first is certain to be. Yoicks! Hurrooo!

We are requested to remind the founders and subscribers to the Victoria Convalescent Home that the Annual General Meeting will take place to-morrow afternoon at 4 p.m. at the London and River Plate Bank (altos). It is hoped there will be a good attendance to testify to the support given to an institution which has been doing very good work during the past years, and has now become a necessity amongst us.

The Municipal returns for April show 12 suicides against 8 in the same month last year. We greatly fear that this sad increase will go further as the crisis grows.

The Choral Union announces another of its attractive concerts for the 10th prox.

We thank Professor Mililotti for sending us his beautiful composition "Ave Maria" (for voice and piano), which we strongly recommend to our musical readers.

We understand that Baron Hirsch's agents have definitely settled down here, and a steady influx of Israelites may therefore be looked for.

We regret to announce the death of Dr. Don Manuel Derqui, President of the Senate and a prominent figure in Argentine politics for many years. He bore a historic name; he was esteemed by friends and respected by enemies. His death leaves a great void in a very wide circle, both social and political. The Government has decreed the funeral honors due to his high rank, and the funeral, which takes place to-day, will rally many hundreds round his grave. A chronic liver complaint carried him off at a comparatively early age, in the full vigor of manhood.

This year the first of the Annual Football (Rugby) matches between Buenos Ayres and Rosario takes place to-day at Rosario. The Home XV left last night by the 9½ p.m. train from the Once de Setiembre Station. As both Clubs are strongly represented, a very hard game is expected. Following are the teams:—Rosario: Back, C E Barnes. ¾ backs, Beaumont, Coubrough and Usher. ½ backs, Barnes R. C. (capt.) and Talbot. Forwards, Dale, Dobbs, Ellery, Fleming, Jacques, Jones, Kinchant, Penman and Rowbotham. Buenos Aires: Back, F Bennett. ¾ backs, F E Jones, C E Webster and R W Anderson. ½ backs, W R Baikie and J L Findlay. Forwards, A A G Goodfellow (capt.), A Lace, L Corry Smith, G Anderson, J W Steed, C V Bowman, F J Leitch, F Jacobs, and M Gilderdale.

The programme of the concert to be held in the Lecture Hall of the American Church next Tuesday appears in our columns to-day, and is likely to prove a great success. Price of admission 50 cents, which includes a cup of tea during the interval.

The Public Works Board reports a collision at Frias station on the Central North Railway. The contending parties were a passenger train and a locomotive, the latter being knocked "hors de combat." Nobody hurt, but $4,500 worth of damage done. As the fault was purely that of the Company, the damage will be knocked off the guarantee.

The Damas de Beneficencia's monthly expenditure for this year is estimated at $69,000, and they have asked Government to approve it.

Messrs. Arturo and Juan Sardo have asked from Government a twelve-year's concession to make horse—sausages in the country! Oh! Don't send us samples, as we wouldn't touch them even with a tongs. Horse sausages! All that can be said for them is that they would be better than the canine or feline article.

The new tariff of the "Servicio Mensajero" has been sent round, and is very moderate. The apparatus of the "empresa" is now to be seen in all the chief "confiterias" and cafes in town; so any citizen who may have a suspicion that a cold or hot hashed mutton awails him for dinner at home has only to drop into the first restaurant he meets, call a messenger, and send his wife an affactionate intimation that pressing business detains him in town, and that he is in fear at not being able to dine with her.

The demand for labour keeps up in a surprising way, considering the crisis. The Labour Office now wants 480 fresh hands.

The Corpus Christi procession will take place to-day in Plaza Mayo, if the weather permit; if not, in the Cathedral. All the religious Orders in town will attend.

The P. M. G. as just published a Rose Book with instructions to the public as to how when and where to post letters properly. Many a man gets through life without being able to master this branch of science, and banks are due to the P. M. G. for contributing to its diffusion.

"Absit omen." The Secretary of the Chilian Legation at Montevideo, Sr. Cardoso, tumbled headlong down the stairs of that building the other day and broke one of his arms.

The only news from learned Cordoba is that they are all themselves again up there after the recent revolutionary scare. The Governor intends to send a lot of the captured Orsini bombs down here for exhibition. We hope H. E. will first be kind enough to see that they are carefully unloaded; otherwise he may keep his Grecian gift.

The parade of the Boys' Battalions to-day will take place in the Hipodromo Nacional. Prizes, to be awarded by a jury of Generals, will be given to the two regiments that manœuvre best. General Mitre will be foreman of this jury. The charge for entrance for each carriage is $3; $1 for visitors on horseback, and 50 cents for those on their own feet. Lord Mayor Bollini will give a breakfast at his own expense to the juvenile warriors when the review ends.

General Mitre caught a bad cold at Monday's doings and was in bed on Tuesday, and part of yesterday.

In La Plata they are so crushed by the crisis that they could not pump up even an ounce of patriotic enthusiasm on Monday, and the day passed away there in the dreariest manner. This was in strange contrast to the "alegria" here.

The first section of the Port Works at Rosario is nearly finished, and, as usual with Port "bosses" in this country, the "empresario" wants to open it at once to ships, in order to scrape in the dollars. No doubt he will be allowed to do so, as such is the custom of the sun is begun, but never finished.

Signor Achilles Regis announces a thought-reading séance on Monday next in the indispensable Operai Hall. Some of the spectators should cross-examine Achilles as to his secret thoughts about the financial situation.

In an editorial "field of honour" affair in Tucuman the other day one of the combatants had his beauty spoiled by a sword slash that took off part of his chin.

Letters from the Interior say that that Pariah of railways, the Andine line, is in such a forlorn and done-up condition that it is dangerous to travel on it, and that the first little flood is as certain as eggs are eggs to sweep away the excuse for a bridge at Chajari. This is sad news.

It is said that there are but twenty-six and one-half miles of electric railways in the whole United Kingdom of Great Britain. The United States has at present over 250 in operation, with over 1,000 miles of track and a large number under contract.

A step from the Plaza de Mayo, and close to the South Basin, surrounded with every convenience and very get-at-able, where property produces a good return, and its value must increase, on account of it being the locality chosen for establishing large deposits and hotels of business, by reason of its facility of communication with the Port.
It offers a splendid business not only for speculators, but also for anyone who wishes to find a secure and profitable investment for his capital. A chance such as seldom offers, especially on account of the conditions of payment, which could not be more advantageous (half in money and half in cheques on the Provincial Bank), an opportunity which the depositors in this bank should not let slip.
Take note, therefore, you gentlemen with capital, keep in mind the extremely low price.
NOTE—Each purchaser, without exception, must pay 5 per cent seña at the time of purchase in guarantee of fulfilment.

—:o:—
Secciones Monte Caseros a Mercedes y Corrientes y Saladas.

Esta Empresa, deseosa de fomentar el desarrollo de algunas industrias nacientes y la prosperidad de las regiones que sus lineas atraviesan, ha dedicado aprovechar las facultades que le confiere la Ley de Ferro-Carriles Nacionales para acordar provisoriamente y hasta nuevo aviso rebajas sobre el trasporte de algunos articulos de produccion y fabricacion locales, como ser maderas, leña, huesos, piedra, carbon de leña, etc.
Para realizar esta idea dejara de cobrar desde el 25 o/o hasta el 50 o/o del aumento en el flete que la corresponda segun el tipo del oro, mientras que este no sea menor de 250 o sea un premio de 150 o/o y siempre en relacion a la cantidad de carga que se desee remitir.
Como es indispensable que toda reduccion sobre los fletes aprobados por el S. Gobierno sea hecha de conformidad con la citada Ley, es necesario que se verifique un convenio precio, por escrito entre la Administracion y los cargadores de estos productos a cuyo efecto deben los interesados dirijirse a aquella, sea en Monte Caseros o en Empredado, segun corresponda el transporte a una u otra seccion, solicitando de la respectiva rebaja.
Estas reducciones de fletes comprenden a todos los cargadores, tanto a los que remitan grandes cantidades como a los que envien pequeñas, mientras no sean menor de un wagon entero, a fin de evitar que la concesion de este beneficio de lugar a monopolios.
La tramitacion para obtener la reduccion de los fletes es sumamente sencilla, bastando al efecto un simple cambio de cartas entre esta Administracion y los interesados en conseguirla.

Provincial Bank cheques were much offered to-day, the rate rising to 22½ per cent, whilst National Bank cheques were done as low as 10 %.

An interesting lawsuit has just been brought to a close. Dr. Gonzalez on behalf of Mr. W. Grant brought an action against Mr. J. M. Burgos for recovery of 3 leagues of land in Santiago del Estero sold by Mr. Burgos in the year 1887 to his client, Mr. Wm. Grant, the price being 6,000 dollars per league. The usual "boleto de compra y venta" was passed, but the sale was never fully carried out, or the lands delivered. Mr. Burgos alleged that the boleto which was given on the 26th August contained an express clause that if the title deeds were not signed by the 27th August the sale would be null and void. The case having been gone into, Dr. Garay has decided in favor of the plaintiff, giving Mr. Burgos 10 days to sign the title-deeds, under penalty of having to pay damages, interest, &c.

Dr. Peyret, Commercial Judge, has ordered the dissolution of the firm of Carabassa & Co. to be entered in the Public Register, and, in order that the London Bank may be enabled to liquidate the Carabassa Bank, full powers of attorney have been granted to Messrs. Srs. AGAR, CROSS & CO., Calle Defensa 136.
Muy Señores Mios,
Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastimduras sanan facilmente, y se hacen cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.
Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.
Pueden Vds. darle la publicidad que gusten.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE.

The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.

From Symes & Co', Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See the "Times," July 13, 1864.
